Soundtrack Film Festival

Calling all Cardiff film buffs... there's a new film and music festival in town. Soundtrack celebrates the most creative and exciting use of music in film. The four-day festival has a packed programme of film screenings, master classes and live music performances. Grab your gummi bears because Itchy's got you covered with our pick of the best events.

Screening: Slumdog Millionaire

26 Nov – 8.30pm
Cineworld Cardiff

Set in modern-day India, this film is the moving account of an impoverished boy who goes on the Hindu version of Who Wants to be A Millionaire to prove his love for his friend Latika. Brag to your mates after you see it because there is Oscar buzz over this film and it will not be released in the UK until January.

Screening: Very Annie Mary and In Conversation with Jonathan Pryce

28 Nov – 5.30pm
Cineworld Cardiff

We loved actor Jonathan Pryce as the baddie from Bond flick Tomorrow Never Dies but you will also recognize him as Keira's pop in Pirates of the Caribbean. Pryce will talk about his career before the screening of the 1997 film Very Annie Mary starring himself, Ioan Gruffudd and Rachel Griffiths.

Soundtrack Festival Party

28 Nov – 9.00pm
The Point, Cardiff Bay

This party is set to go into the wee hours of the night and award winning DJ David Holmes will be spinning tunes. Not familiar with his work? He produced the film scores for this small movie called, oh, Ocean's Eleven. We know you never pass up a party so get yourself to The Point.

Soundtrack

26 – 29 November
